

Mark Lowary
Berman Berman Berman Shneider & Lowary

- Education: B.A., Business Administration, California State University, Fullerton. J.D., Southwestern University School of Law. (Admitted to State Bar of California, 1993.)
- Memberships: American Bar Association; Los Angeles County Bar Association.
- Specialties, Experience: Mr. Lowary is the Managing Partner of the firm's office in Riverside, California. His practice is devoted to professional liability, automobile negligence, truck and transportation, safety and security, product liability, repossession, personal injury and coverage matters. His professional experience includes five years in the corporate underwriting and general counsel's office of a major U.S. insurer. Mr. Lowary has considerable jury trial experience and has participated in over 250 mediations and arbitrations.
- One Highlight: Mr. Lowary once taught math, reading, and English to Special Education students at a California intermediate school.
- Most Memorable Legal Moment: "I have many memorable moments. I have been fortunate to defend many high-quality medical, dental and construction professionals and have rung up six straight defense verdicts."
- Away from the Law: Mr. Lowary and his wife Kim live in San Dimas, CA, with their sons Blake and Braidan. The family works out together at a local gym and, in the fall, joins with others at an Ohio State Fan Club in Orange County to watch Buckeye football. Mr. Lowary enjoys construction jobs around the house, such as deck building and light masonry. He is also a volunteer football coach for his sons' Pop Warner teams in San Dimas.